

The Panel adopted a revised Delegation Order, making it clear that a funding applicant could opt to appear before the full Panel. See revised Delegation Order posted here which was adopted effective September 19, 2014.

State of California

Employment Training Panel

Edmund G. Brown Jr., Governor

Delegation of Limited Authority to Executive Director ≤$100,000

The Employment Training Panel, acting as a whole body and pursuant to Unemployment Insurance Code Section 10209(d), hereby delegates to the ETP Executive Director or Acting Executive Director authority to approve funding ≤$100,000 conditioned on reservation of the applicant's right to present their funding proposal to the full Panel. In particular, should a funding proposal be denied under this Delegation Order, the applicant may appear at the next regularly-scheduled Panel meeting, with 10 days advance notice.

This Delegation Order applies to "core program" funding by the Employment Training Tax and "alternate" funding sources. This applies to proposals for new contracts and amendments to existing contracts, so long as the aggregate value of the contract is ≤$100,000. This applies to all contracting categories: Single Employer Contracts including Small Business, and Multiple Employer Contracts including Apprenticeship.

The Executive Director or Acting Executive Director will notify the full Panel of all contracts or amendments executed under this delegation at the next regularly-scheduled meeting.

This delegation will take effect on September 19, 2014 as memorialized in minutes of the Panel meeting on that date, and by signature of Chairman Barry Broad below. This delegation will remain in effect until the full Panel rescinds or modifies it at a regularly-scheduled meeting. This delegation will supersede all previous delegations except the Delegation Order for RESPOND funding that went into effect on April 25, 2014.
